Description

Peacefully located on the ground floor of Beaumont Lodge, is this well-presented retirement flat. This apartment benefits from works that have taken place over recent years, including an attractive fitted kitchen, a spacious open plan lounge/diner, and a separate bathroom. The double bedroom has built-in wardrobes, and there is further storage in the hallway. With many communal features, this conveniently located flat in this friendly retirement development needs to be seen to be appreciated.

Location

Beaumont Lodge can be found on Addington Road, where it meets Glebe Way, in West Wickham. Local shops and the Co-Op Food store are within very easy reach, as are bus routes into Bromley and Croydon town centres. The Doctors surgery is also close by. For full directions please see the map or contact Allen Heritage Estate Agents.

Communal Features

The hallways, stairwells and common parts of Crittenden Lodge are regularly cleaned and maintained to a high standard. There is a residents' lounge [which has kitchen facilities] where coffee mornings and the like are held, and there is a laundry room with washing and drying facilities. There are well-kept communal gardens, a residents' guest suite where family and friends can stay [bookable with the manager at a very reasonable nightly rate] and a residents' car park at the rear.
